Our Purpose

The 1960 Antler presents in its pages the many varied features of our school life because these reflect the true spirit and individuality of Edfra.

As the lens of the camera moves from classroom to classroom, from one activity to another, it is evident that the students are made aware of the value of all phases of education.

The activities pictured here show how Edfra uses every resource of the classroom and of the community to meet and satisfy the educational needs of its youth.

Board of Education

The office of school board member is a trusteeship for an important community function. The services rendered are vital to the well-being of community, state, and nation. They are worthy of the highest intelligence and the most self-sacrificing qualities of citizenship the community affords. In spite of occasional public failure to appreciate the services rendered by members of school boards, the work performed is as important as that performed by any other public servants. No public service is so productive of personal satisfaction as that of membership on a school board when the office is accepted by a person genuinely wishing to render service to the community and its young, developing citizens.

Health Service

Of primary importance is the physical well-being of each student at Edfra. In addition to physical and oral examinations, both preventive and corrective measures are taken to insure the continued health of each student.

Follow-up of serious defects and illnesses is made so the student will enjoy physical well-being as rapidly as possible.

This department works closely with the physical education instructors to teach students concerning health, hygiene, and nutrition for healthful, safe living.

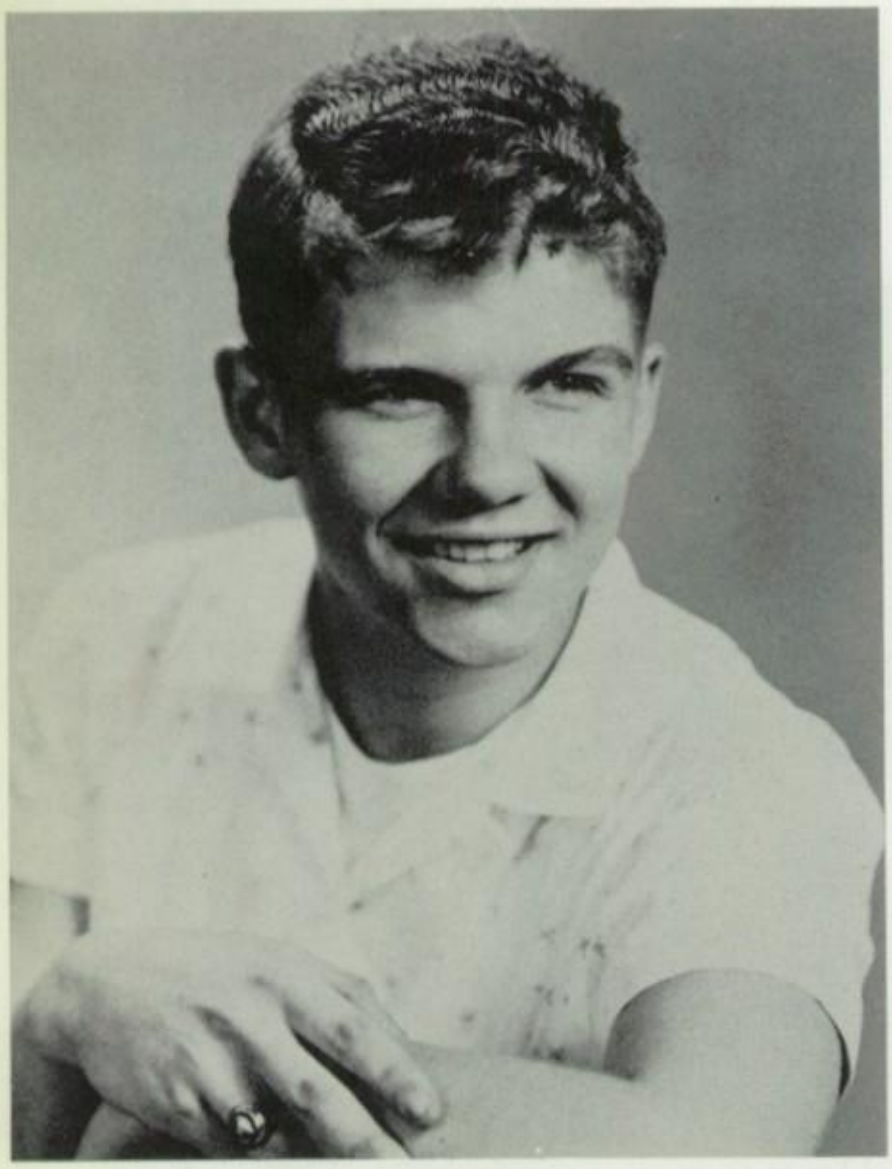
Student



JOHN P. WALLO
President of Student Council

Student Council is the most important student organization at Edfra because its members, in conjunction with the faculty and the administration, help to decide what should be the activities and the responsibilities of the entire school.

Just a few of the many projects of the Student Council are: Junior High Prom, Tag Day, trees for the halls at Christmas, milk for the basketball players at half-time, music for noon hour dancing, movies of special interest, ushering at Graduation, Coronation, and special events.

Each member realizes the importance of participation in each activity and it is a matter of record that each student feels personally responsible for the success of each activity sponsored by the Council.

It is an active student organization and deserves the understanding, respect, and cooperation of students, faculty, and the administration. Mr. J. Gerald Haag is their adviser.

Alma Mater

Whene'er the sun sinks in the sky
We dream of days that have gone by
Happy times and lessons long
And friendships pleasant as a song.
When our school days all are done
We'll long recall their work and fun.
Every cloud that's in the sky
Just tints the sunshine of Edfra High.

PRESIDENT

FRED MALIK
"Fred"

Class President, Student Band Director, Antler Editor . . . Fred, extremely popular, never failed to brighten up any gathering. With his remarkable ability to mix, he is undoubtedly assured of success.

MISS MOLLY EPSTEIN
Class Adviser

VICE PRESIDENT

JOHN P. WALLO
"Pub"

Intelligent, serious, and efficient, John had no difficulties academically. It can definitely be said that here is a classmate with a wealth of human resources and ability.

Senior Officers

DOLORES J. DECROO
"Dee"

Dee's many friends find her congenial, even-tempered, and easy to get along with. Dancing, Monday night drive-ins, and swimming rate high on her list of interests. Her ambition and earnestness will take her far in the teaching profession.

SECRETARY

NANCY M. GEFFERT
"Nanc"

Class treasurer for three years is a record few students attain, but Nanc proved to be both efficient and trustworthy. These qualities, plus dependability, will help pave her way to success.

TREASURER

REBECCA GLENSKY
"Becky"

Becky's captivating smile has won her many friends. We shall remember her talents as an artist and musician. Her interest in science and conscientious manner assure her success at Allegheny Valley Hospital.

Principal's Message

To the Class of 1960, congratulations and best wishes. It is something special to be the 21st graduating class of the High School. If you have average health, you should live through the next four decades or more. Maybe you can have a "Class Reunion" in the year 2000. In this age when knowledge is expanding at an astronomical rate, when technological advances are providing a daily jolt to accustomed ways of thinking and acting, much progress will be made. I hope your lives will be rich and full of accomplishments.

ROCHELLE BACCANTI
"Rabbit"

Joyous fun is the keyword to understanding the personality of this high-stepping majorette whose sweet charm enchants everyone. Her ambition, her courage, and tact will soothe her way through life.

SYLVIA M. BAILIE
"Syl"

Charming and lovely are the only words which describe Sylvia, a specialist in homemaking arts. These words will always describe Sylvia whether she becomes an airline hostess, a stenographer, or a homemaker.

DANIEL BALDWIN
"Baldy"

Danny's pleasant smile matches his personality and added to his popularity. His proficiency in science brought him third prize, while his wit and acting earned him a role in the senior class play.

ROBERT LAVERNE BEACOM
"Vern"

Quiet, easy-going, and energetic, Laverne was a valuable member of the Band and Big Twelve. It was easy to see his love for the great outdoors from his smile during hunting season.

WILLIAM A. BEN
"Stilts"

Full of fun, energy, and mischief, Bill was friendly and outgoing. Stilts' habit for never leaving a job half-done, coupled with his friendly attitude, mark him for sure success.

JAMES M. BLASCO
"Jim"

Kindly-natured, Jim was well-liked by his classmates. An avid sports fan, he helped to cheer the football and basketball teams on to victory, yet never failed to sympathize with their defeat.

JAN BOSAK
"Jan"

Personable, self-confident, but not selfish, Jan enjoyed the company of his classmates. They found him always ready to help with any activity except when it interfered with his hunting and fishing.

BARBARA J. BOSMAN
"Barb"

Barbara will long be remembered for her fascinatingly beautiful, long, blonde hair, and her winning smile. She stands in a class by herself, the proud possessor of the dreams success is founded upon.

RICHARD W. BRADY
"Spook"

Dick was known to all as the strong-silent type. Aside from his dry smile and nothing-shall-get-on-my-nerves attitude, Spook will always be remembered as a good guy to be with in a friendly discussion or a trip to Shawnee.

Seniors

DOROTHY A. KONDRICK
"Dot"

Dot prepared for becoming a business major by being Co-editor of the Hi-Lite and student director of the Senior Class play. A genial personality, plus ability, smoothes the way for her.

CAROLE KONESKY

Carole has found that being shy and demure does not prevent her from being popular with her classmates. She also knows that these qualities will help her achieve a successful career.

JOHN P. KOVACK JR.
"Kov"

Kov was probably one of the easiest-going boys in Edfra. He worked hard and won himself recognition at the Fair. We wish him the best of luck in his future.

IRENE KRUK
"I"

Irene, in her modest way, contributes loyalty and friendship to the group. These qualities, plus knowledge and determination to succeed, will help her to become a good secretary.

MARY ANN KUDLACH
"Kooch"

"Optimistic" is the only word that describes our Mary Ann. She manages to have more fun than any two other people and is a firm believer in the slogan, "Be Happy."

CHARLOTTE E. KUPCIK
Char"

Char's interesting and striking wardrobe is a reflection of her gay, friendly personality. No one will ever be able to say that looks and "book learning" are as dry as dust when she's librarian.

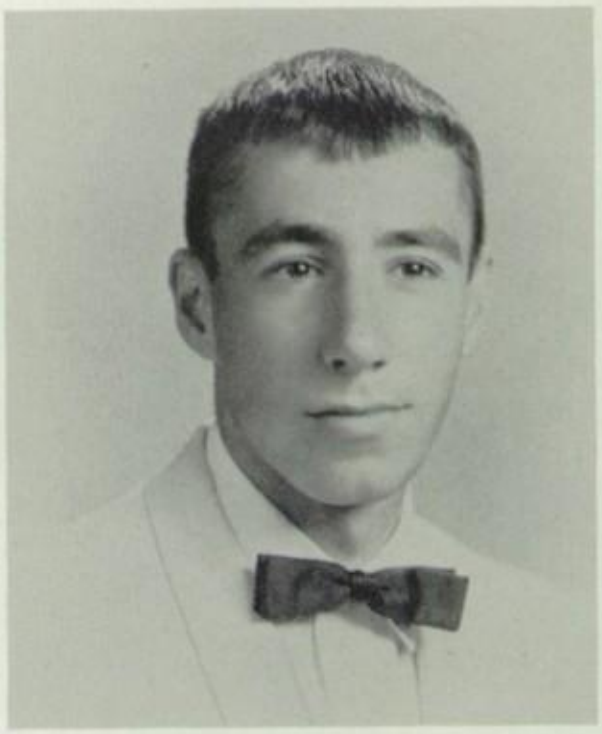
WILLIAM J. LANG
"Bill"

Along with being a fine artist, Bill was a true friend. He was never one to complain and was always ready with a smile. Ambition and good humor will bring him success.

GLORIA J. LUBATTI
"Glor"

Wherever you find Dot and Dee, you'll generally find Gloria, too. They have fun cornered, but Gloria has her serious moments when she thinks of Indiana State College and a Business Education major.



JAMES MARELLI
"Squirrel"

Jim, captain of our football team, received a scholarship to Indiana State College. His pleasant voice, beguiling smile, cooperative attitude, and good humor will help him to be as successful as he was at Edfra.

Seniors

1960

ADELINE MARINELLI
"Adie"

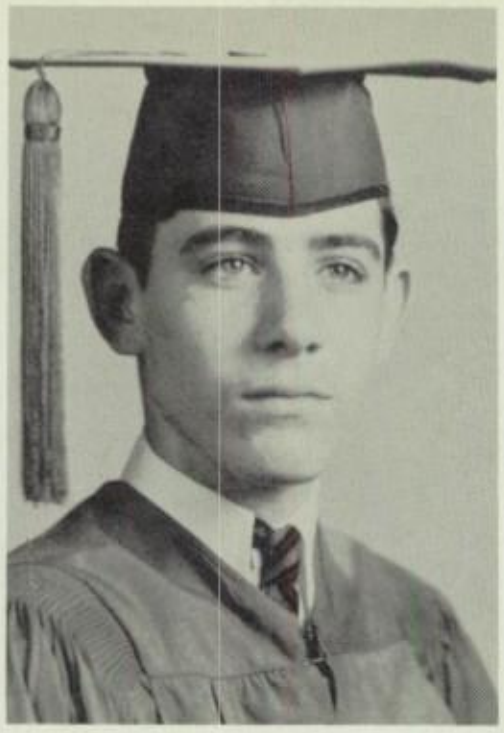
A winning smile, an eagerness to please, and true sincerity sum up the pleasing personality of this vivacious miss. All these combined will help our Adeline in her teaching career.

JONATHAN MARTINEC
"Jon"

The word "automobile" means much to Jon, whose hobby is working with his car. Appreciative of the good things in life, his stay at California State College should be filled with excitement.

JOSEPH E. MATTERN
"Joe E. P."

It was the usual thing to see Joe working on his car or truck because he delighted in a smooth running engine with plenty of go. Agreeable and quiet-mannered, he hopes to become a math teacher.



WILLIAM J. LANG

RONALD D. MATUS
"Moby"

Quick-witted, debonair, and assured, Ron often had the role as master of ceremonies at Edfra. This experience will help him greatly when he strives for success in the world of business.

DAN McPHERSON
"Mac"

As an athlete, Dan excelled in basketball. As a scholar, he fought the English Department to a standstill. Mac was a lucky boy with the ladies. He has all the qualities necessary to do well in life.

PAULINE MERCURIO
"Paula"

Nothing was ever distressing enough to disrupt dark-haired Paula's quiet calmness. She has a keen interest in people. Her friendly nature and respect for others will win her a lasting place in the nursing profession.

RONALD METAL
"Ron"

An easy-going nature, a ready joke, and smile, and an innate ability to make friends—these are his trademarks. We are sure the Navy will appreciate such a dependable young man as Ron.

ANN MILLER
"Ann"

Between school work and traveling, Ann had little time to spare. Combining her academic abilities with her gay and optimistic personality, she should have a brilliant career in the business world.

JAMES A. MODEY JR.
"Jim"

Jim stands out as being one of the most determined in his class. He accepts success gracefully, and his ability to express his ideas promises him a bright future in the political world.

JO ANNE ONOFER
"JoAnne"

As a dependable and reliant head majorette, JoAnne was accustomed to designing routines to teach the twirlers to perform. This ability to handle people will make her nursing career an easier one.

MARYANN SABOL
"Sabe"

Pleasing, petite, polite, and popular, Maryann is one of Edfra's Seniors who will successfully carry on the proud heritage of Edfra when she enters the business world as a secretary.

JAMES A. SARTI
"Jas"

Jim's record at Edfra speaks for itself. Outstanding leadership, intelligence, and athletic ability were all combined by Jim to make him respected and well-liked by all the students.

Seniors 1960

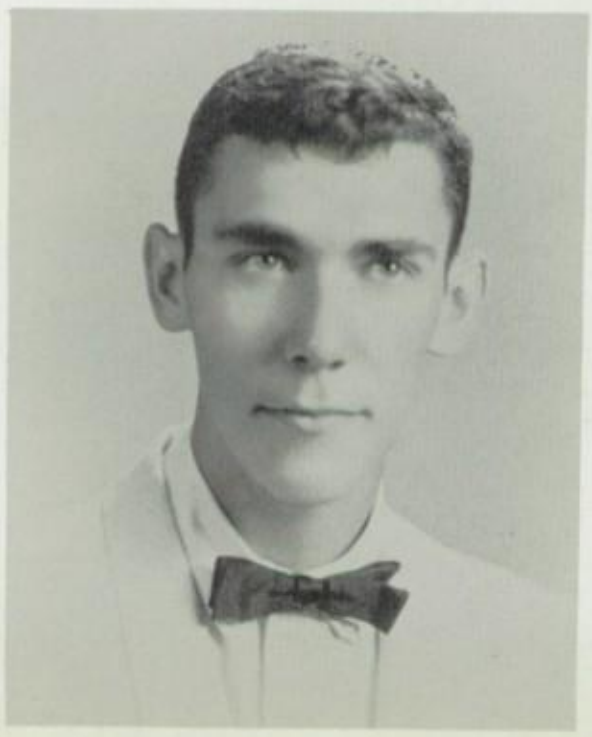
WALTER L. SHAW JR.
"Butch"

Walter was a friendly, easy-going guy who always got along well with everybody. His spirit of competition and friendliness will be remembered.

ROBERT J. SHEARER
"Bob"

Bob could be described in two words: a skillful artist. His astute judgment, easy-going spirit, and keen sense of humor make us proud to know him.



GERALD L. SMOLAK
"Jerry"

Jerry divided most of his time between the Atlantic Service Station and Edfra. His quick action and dependability won the trust and friendship of everyone.

PATRICIA A. SOLTIS
"Pat"

Pat's cheerful smile and personality have always been an indication that she always manages to see the bright side of life. If you ever need anything done, Pat will do the best job she knows how.

PAUL S. SUTARA
"Cherokee"

He will always be remembered for his kindly nature, easy smile, and mild manner. All who know Cherokee and his friendliness are sure that he will have a successful future.

JULIA SUTORKA
"Julie"

Smiling, always busy, Julie never has time for a dull moment. Realizing the importance of being well-prepared, she spent much of her time studying shorthand and typing for a civil service career.

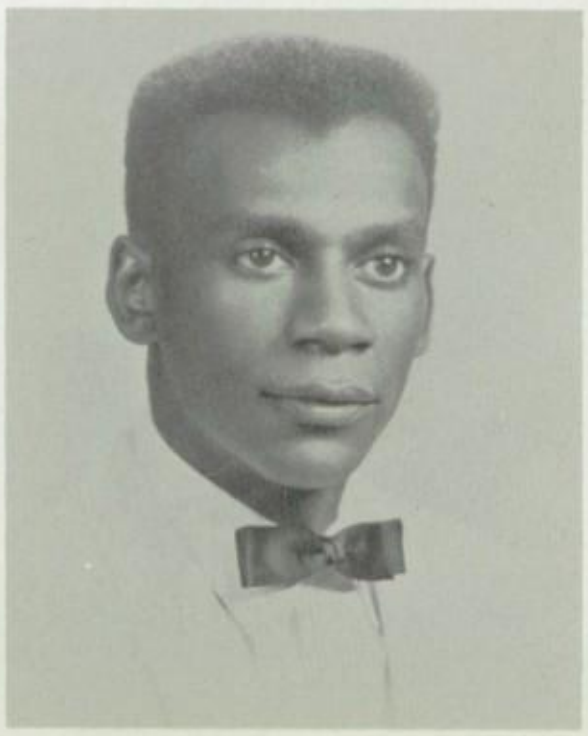
Seniors 1960

RAYMOND A. SUTORKA
"Ray"

Ray distinguished himself as the best Indian wrestler in the Senior Class. Full of fun, he is always good company. Ray's nonchalance toward studies and his sense of humor will always remain in our memories.

BOOKER TURNER
"Turn"

Booker, who spent his last days at Edfra running, may best be remembered for trying to beat the Academic system. With his natural athletic ability and ready wit, he is sure to do well.



JOSEPH TVRDOVSKY
"Jug"

Joe will always be remembered for his impressive appearance, his enthusiasm, and his ability to do any job well. To all who met him, Joe was sharp, hardworking, and quick to make friends.

RONALD E. VALASEK
"Val"

To those who were fortunate enough to earn his friendship, it is well known that Ron's desire for success is only exceeded by his love for fun. With his winning ways, he is headed for much success.

FRANKLIN M. WILCOX
"Big Frank"

Nothing worried Frank, including studies, but he always managed to come out a little ahead of the game. His quick smile and ability to work will be an asset to him wherever he goes.

GEORGE WILSON
"Willy"

Always one for bits of philosophy, George delighted in trying to beat the system. In the thickest of every encounter no one else could remain as deliberate, calm, and energetic as Willy.

Seniors 1960

ELLEN M. WOLFF
"Ellen"

Perfection is the key word for understanding Ellen in her attempt to achieve this ideal. The career she has chosen stresses that aspect, so Ellen's talents will be put to good use. Good luck at Penn State, Ellen.

JOHN F. YAKIMCZYK
"Johnny"

Carefree, quick-witted, and gay, John was a very popular football player. Wherever he went, you could find a trail of broken hearts in his wake. Johnny will be fondly remembered as one of Edfra's best.

DENNIS G. ZIENDARSKI
"Den"

If hard work mixed with a good deal of fun and quick wit, and topped off with a ready smile are the ingredients for a successful man, then Den will undoubtedly be one of our most successful.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS develop the students' manipulative skills and technical knowledge through the study and use of tools, materials, machines and processes which man has adapted to fulfill his needs.

HOMEMAKING education is concerned with the home and personal living . . . the development of individual and family interests . . . the fostering of social, civic, and vocational relationships.

PHYSICS, the science dealing with stress weight and density, and their like, teaches students that the automobile, the airplane, and the Univac and the atomic power station are the works of man's hand and brain.

THE FINE ARTS DEPARTMENT is not thought of or dealt with in any classic or orthodox sense, but as serving to arouse in the individual some desire or need for creative experience, and as an opportunity for its cultivation.

LATIN, by its emphasis on the constant processes of analysis and synthesis, teaches clarity and precision of thought, clearness of expression in English, and the ability to distinguish the thought and form of expression.

The curriculum in BUSINESS EDUCATION is concerned with making each student occupationally competent to the point where he can be of service to the employing public.

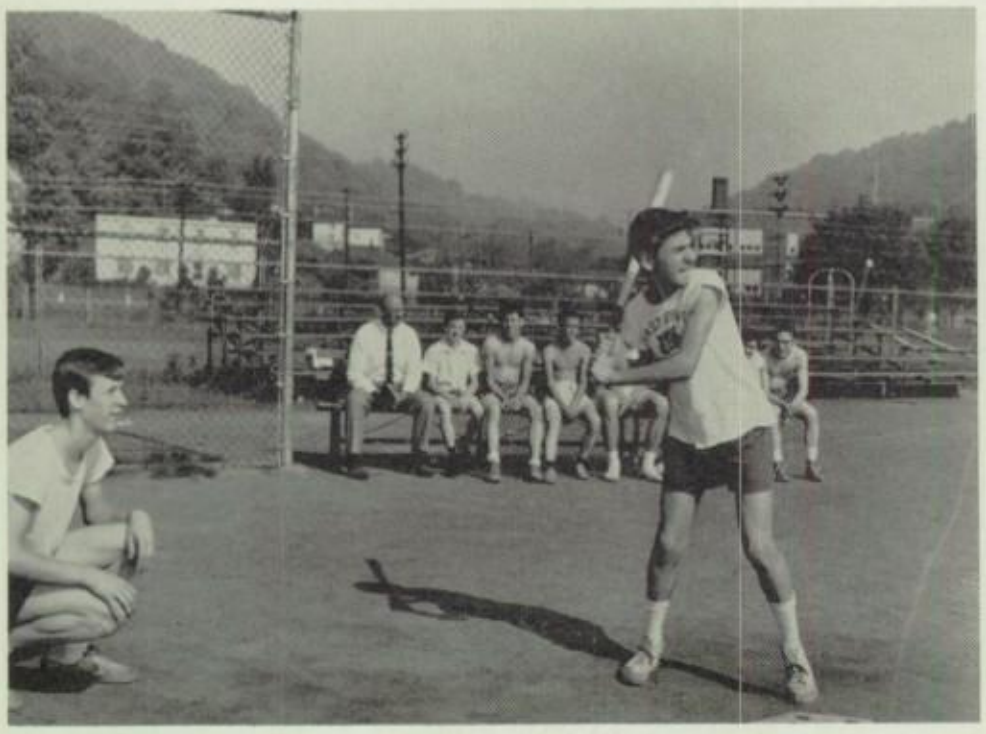
BIOLOGY enables the student to understand and appreciate the world in which he lives because he can see the results of the application of scientific principles that he has studied in the classroom.

Through close pupil-teacher relationship, learning is not only more productive and meaningful, but also most enjoyable.

GUIDANCE SERVICE encourages the student to explore widely so that he will be in a better position to select wisely the field that interests him most, the one that assures success.

LIBRARY SCIENCE instills in students the love of reading by directing their leisure reading, and teaches the use of library resources in order to obtain reliable, effective information whenever necessary.

ENGLISH helps to enrich life for the individual by developing personal satisfaction in reading, creative expression, and dramatization. It is of particular importance to each student because of its intimate connection with all other subjects.



PHYSICAL EDUCATION teaches coordination, sportsmanship, and better use of leisure time through recreational games and helps students develop strong, healthy bodies through knowledge of physiology and hygiene.

GEOGRAPHY trains the student to observe and understand his natural environment so that its pleasures are enhanced and made part of the American way of life.

Jack Lord, Edfra's Top National Test Achiever, receiving his Certificate of Merit from Mr. Petor. Tom Dominick, Top Senior Test Achiever and Scholarship Winner, looks on approvingly.

David Stuckley is taking the Flanagan Aptitude Tests to discover his aptitudes and interests that will be useful in selection of future careers.

Guidance Service

What is Guidance?

In the subject-centered schools of fifty years ago it was said: "Here is the school; those of you who wish to meet the purposes and standards of the school, and are able to do so, are welcome."

The trend of the past fifty years can be quickly summed as a movement of ever increasing vigor to democratize our schools. Public schools have stopped becoming autocratic now and are trying to achieve their place among the democratic institutions of America. There are everywhere in this country great movements to strengthen democracy. Those movements are strong in formal education, at last. We are achieving the school that recognizes the individual—the child-centered school which says: "All pupils are welcome, regardless of ability and purpose; you come to school and the school will fit itself to your abilities and interests. It will help you create socially-oriented standards for your conduct, and then help you achieve your purposes and standards. You are the school."

Guidance is based on these democratic concepts:

1. Education is for all children, regardless of color, creed, national origin, or ability.
2. School activities must recognize the worthwhileness of the individual—that each individual in himself is important.

Richard Snyder, Fred Swartz, Joseph Harcina, and Clarence Wilcox are enjoying a cold drink of chocolate milk while waiting to talk to Dr. Allias, Director of Guidance Services.

MATHEMATICS, a universally precise science of symbols, numbers, and quantities, has a limitless applicability to all life situations as well as being essential to interpreting and solving problems in applied science.

CHEMISTRY touches and releases the imagination of each student as he learns of the atom and its almost unbelievable powers, as he learns of the accomplishments attained by this science, as he looks about him and decides, "This is good."

GENERAL SCIENCE gives the student an opportunity to look objectively at this present-day world so that he realizes the necessity for developing his creative and construction abilities to their fullest extent.

MUSIC through its curriculum, contributes to the development of appreciation, knowledge, and skills in all pupils, and provides various opportunities to develop talents in group activities.

Since highway safety is one of our major social problems, DRIVER EDUCATION tries to develop attitude, appreciation, understanding, and knowledge essential to safe, sane, cooperative, responsible use of streets and highways.

The sole concern of SOCIAL SCIENCE is man's behavior—the most complex of all phenomena—it teaches the student knowledge, wisdom, and insight so that he may understand himself as well as others.

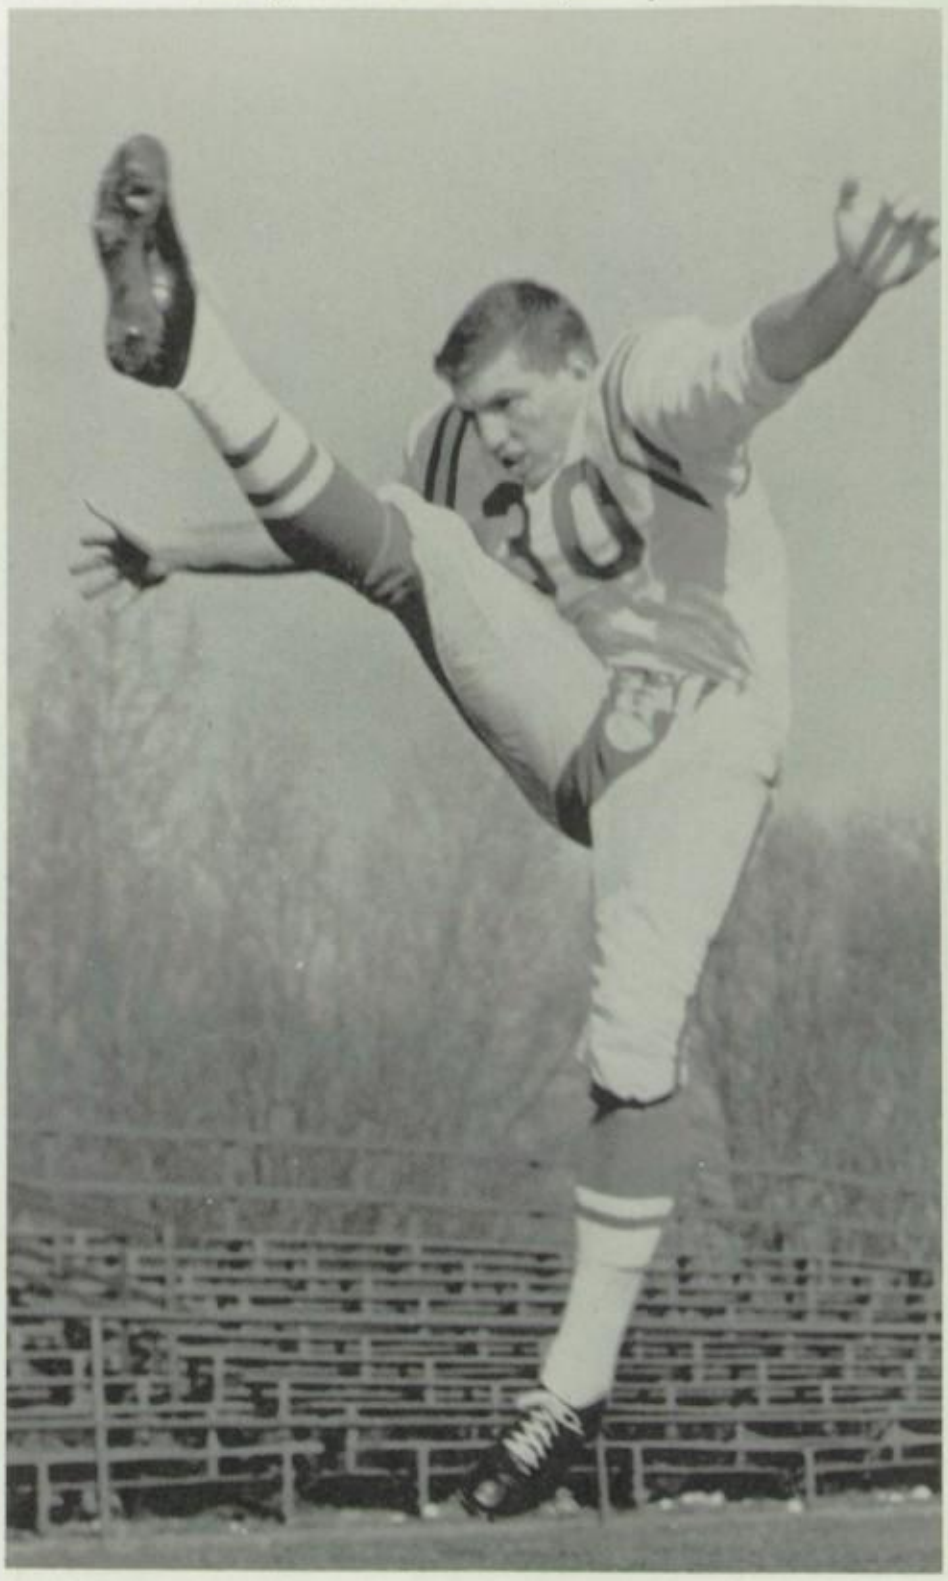
Most Valuable Player Awardee

Jimmy Sarti

Edfra's Mr. Everything



"Jim Sarti, a strapping 6-0, 179-pounder, was one of Alle-Kiski Valley's finest performers. He did everything for the Bucks—kicking off, punting, booting extra points and field goals, pass-receiving, and, on occasion, throwing passes.

He was the top scoring terminal in the A-K, getting 56 points."

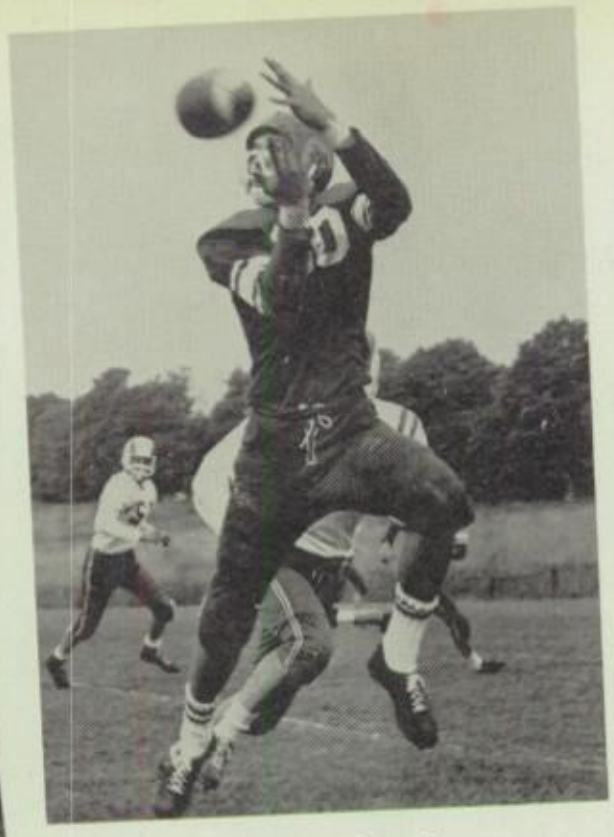
We're off to the circus.

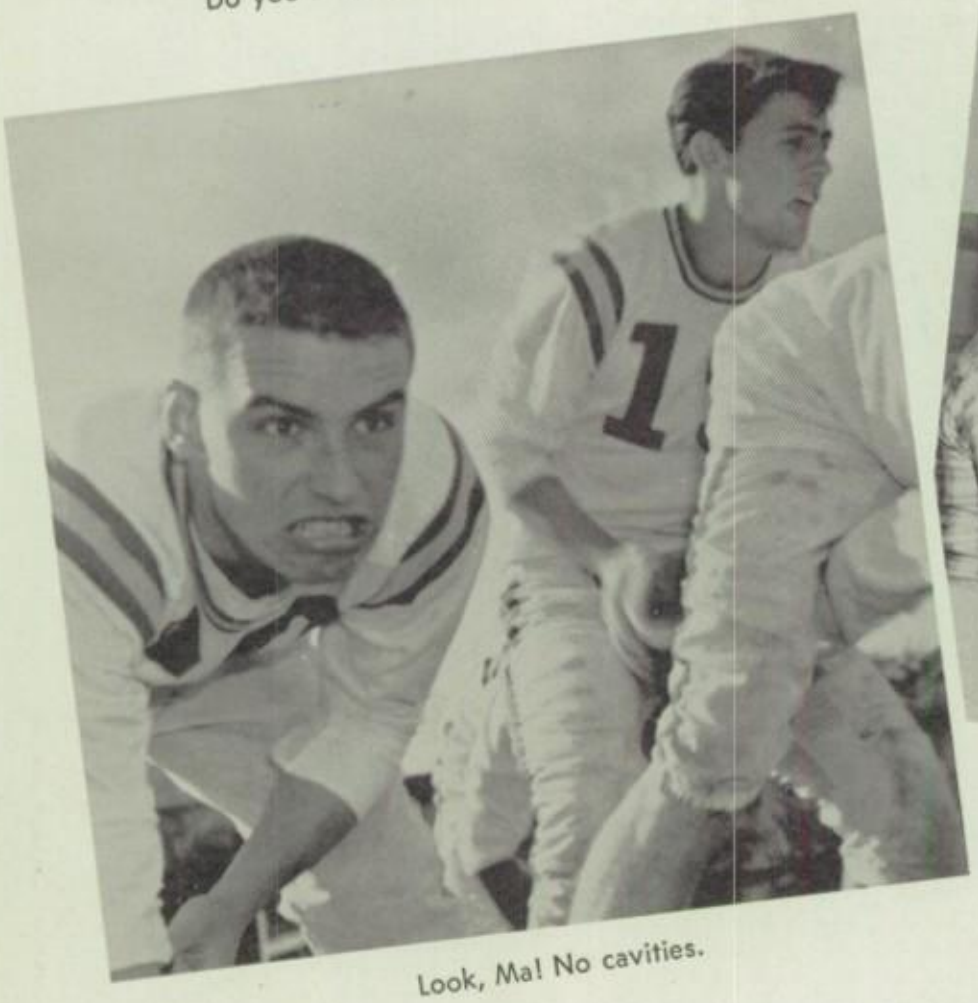
What a way to waste money.

Do you have briar patch legs?

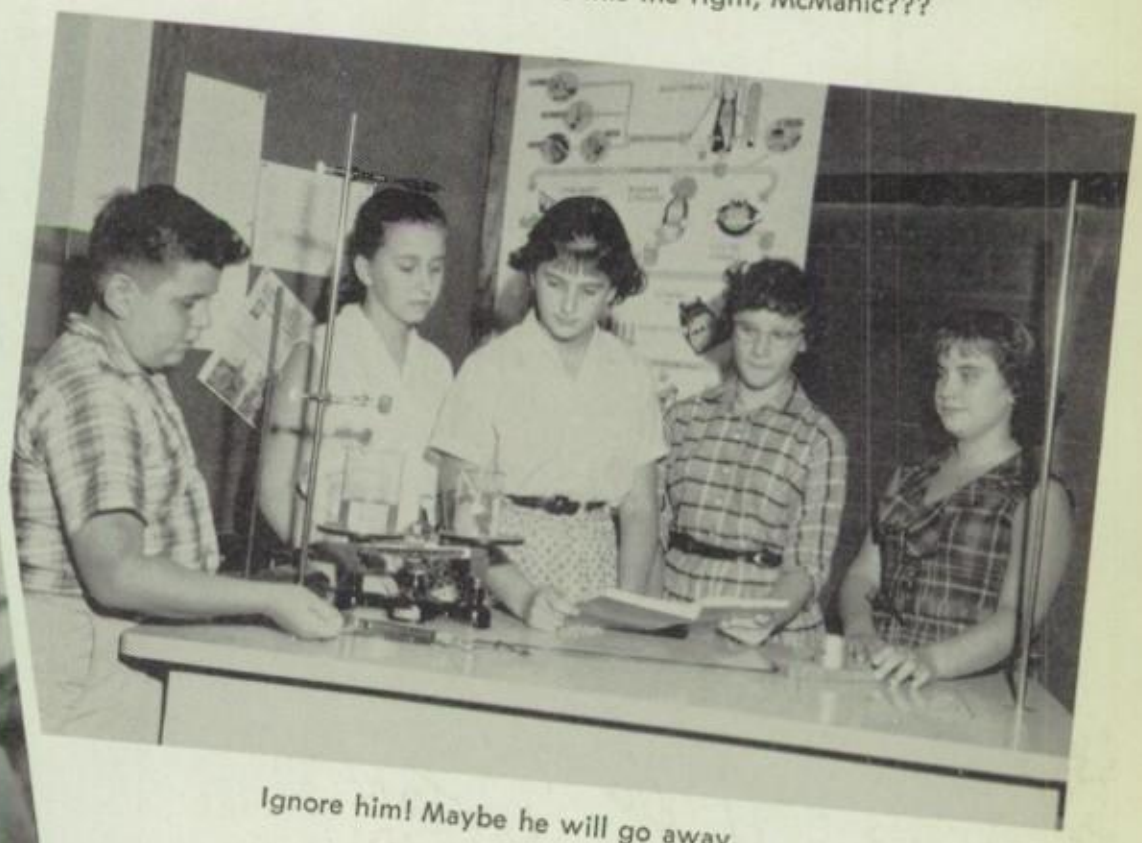


Come to Papa!

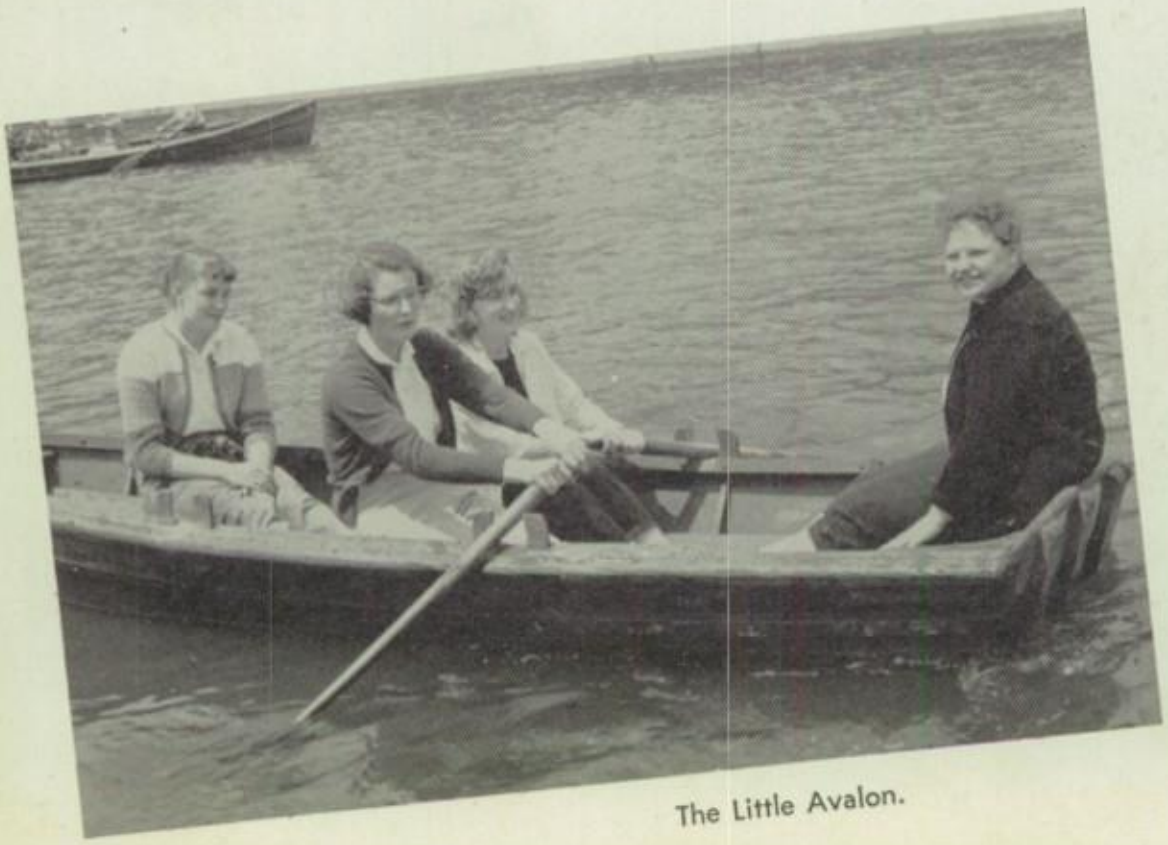
Is this the right, McManic???



Look, Ma! No cavities.



Ignore him! Maybe he will go away.



The Little Avalon.

We use Gleem!
